KELLY MILLER SMITH is pastor, First Baptist Church (Negro), Nashville, Tenn., and is a contact of this office under the current "Liaison with Groups Sponsoring Desegregation" (LWGSD) Program.

AARON HENRY is a Negro, Clarksdale, Miss., druggist - is President of Mississippi Chapter, NAACP, and is a contact of this office under the LWGSD Program.

B. L. HOOKS is a Negro attorney, Memphis, Tenn., and also a Baptist minister and an assistant public defender, Shelby County, Tenn. He is a former American Legion contact.

JAMES LAWSON is identical with Rev. JAMES MORRIS LAWSON, aka JAMES MORRIS LAWSON, JR., Negro minister, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church. He is a member of the Executive Board, Memphis, Tenn., NAACP Chapter, a former theology student at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., and by reputation is one of the originators of the so-called Negro Nonviolent Protest Movement in this country.

The following possible subversive references to LAWSON are reflected in Memphis files:

Page C17, late City Edition, "New York Times," daily newspaper, New York, New York, issued of 2/22/62 carried a full-page listing captioned "An Appeal to House of Representatives Abolish HUAC" (The House Un-American Activities Committee). This appeal called upon Congress to abolish the HUAC. It called upon individuals to send contributions or write to JAMES IMBRIE, Treasurer, or CLARENCE E. PICKETT, Chairman, Ad Hoc Committee, 160 North 15th Street, Philadelphia 2 Pa. This appeal stated: "Funds for this advertisement were contributed by many whose signatures are listed below."

The appeal listed numerous individuals broken down by their vocational or professional standing; under "Religious Leaders" was listed "Rev. JAMES M. LAWSON, Nashville, Tenn. b7D (On 12/3/63 [redacted] advised that as of 2/22/62 LAWSON was living in Nashville, Tenn.)

All racial and security sources have repeatedly been alerted to furnishing any evidences of possible Communist infiltration of Negro or racial groups.

On December 11, 1963, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Stanley Levison contacted Clarence Jones on that date. They discussed Martin Luther King's book, and during the course of this discussion, Levison mentioned that there are several chapters which should be revised and several others which require minor changes. Levison inquired about "the office uptown", and Jones replied that he thought the operation is to be transferred to Atlanta. Levison told Jones to get the key for the safety deposit box from Jack O'Dell (Hunter Pitts O'Dell), and he mentioned that there is a large list of contributors in the safe. They also discussed an appeal letter in connection with the "Jewish appeal". Levison said that he would send Wyatt (T. Walker) a constructive letter on the (Southern Christian Leadership Conference) Newsletter. Jones said he would appreciate that. (S) U

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in July, 1963, that as of July 16, 1963, Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA). (S) U

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel for the Gandhi Society For Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York City.

A third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he had identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL). (S) u

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

With respect to "the office uptown", mentioned by Levison, it is to be noted that it has been determined from the first source that when Levison and Jones refer to "the office uptown", they are in fact referring to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) office at 312 West 125th Street, New York City. (S) u

It is to be noted that Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who also uses the name Jack O'Dell, was formerly administrator of the SCLC office in New York City. (S) u

The second confidential source advised on July 17, 1962, that as of July, 1962, Hunter Pitts O'Dell was considered by the Communist Party, United States of America, as a member of its National Committee. (S) u

DECLASSIFIED BY 1678 RFP/KH
ON 111 2 1985

On December 13, 1963, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Martin Luther King in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on that date. During the course of their discussion, King mentioned that he will be on a very "tight schedule" for the next few days. He said that he will be in Michigan on Wednesday, December 18, 1963; in Baltimore, Maryland, on Thursday, December 19, 1963; and Danville, Virginia, on Friday, December 20, 1963.

King mentioned that he does not feel there is any urgency for him to meet with Governor Rockefeller. Jones told King that he feels it is urgent for King to meet with Harry Wachtel and himself in order that the pressing problems confronting them may be discussed. Jones said that one of the most pressing problems involves the fact that "an inquiry was made of him (Jones) by a representative of the Government about a Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) representative". Jones said, "It was akin to the questions asked Jack". King replied that he did not understand this problem. Jones stated he is afraid that "this problem will snowball". Jones reminded King that it could involve "the lawyer friend of Bill's". Jones said that "the government man" wanted to know "what position Bill's friend held in the SCLC", and Jones said that he told him that he did not know.

Jones and King made tentative plans to meet in Atlanta, Georgia, on December 22, 1963, if that is agreeable with Harry Wachtel.

King said that he did not like a recent Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) Television program dealing with the civil rights movement in Harlem. King asked Jones to let CBS know about this.

Jones said that Hermine Popper (ph) will edit King's book and will have it ready by January 13, 1963, if she gets ten per cent of King's royalties up to $3,000. He said that she wants an advance of $500. King said that he is agreeable to this but does not want anyone to get the impression that he receives help in preparing his books since he feels this would hurt his national image.

Jones informed Harry Wachtel's secretary that he had been in touch with Martin Luther King and that King would like to meet with Wachtel and himself. According to Jones, King said that he could meet with them in the morning of December 20, 1963, in Washington, D.C., from which point he will be departing at 2:00 o'clock by plane to go to Danville, Virginia. Jones said that King would also be available to meet with them on the evening of December 22, 1963, and the morning of December 23, 1963, in Atlanta, Georgia. Jones indicated he favored going to Atlanta since they would have more time to talk to King down there.

⁴ [On December 16, 1963, the same source furnished information that] Jones contacted Wachtel on that date. Jones mentioned that King is coming to New York City on Thursday, December 19, 1963, for a three hour conference with the publisher of King's book. After this conference, King will go to Baltimore.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH
THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES
COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

According to Jones, Hermine feels that it would save her from doing things over if King could have a discussion with her.

King suggested that he might fly from Baltimore to New York City on Friday, December 20, 1963, and arrive at 12:00 noon. He stated that he would be able to stay in New York City until four or five o'clock. Jones and King agreed this would be a good arrangement. King also suggested that if he did not have to come all the way into town from the airport, he would be able to spend more time at the meeting. It was agreed that Jones would make arrangements to get a room at or near the airport. Jones suggested that he might try to get a room at the International Hotel or at the airport itself.

King inquired about the financial status of the Gandhi Society, mentioning that they were still being confronted with bills in Danville. King said, "They throw it up to us all the time that the Gandhi Society made a commitment and that they haven't had the follow through". Jones replied that Harry Wachtel has been working on this with Bill Kunstler. Jones indicated that Wachtel has been going over the bills, and he said that there has been a source of dispute because of a number of commitments were made "without our prior knowledge". He said these were commitments made by Bill (Kunstler), and he said he felt that they would have to honor them. Jones informed King that he thought the bills came to about $12,000. Jones stated that some arrangements were made to have some money raised in Boston and that these funds were to be earmarked for Danville. Jones indicated that Wachtel was "a little angry" at the way Bill (Kunstler) had made certain commitments and "certain representations" without consulting him (Wachtel) or people in the (Gandhi) Society.

King told Jones that after New Years, he wants to have "a retreat like" conference for approximately two and a half days in North Carolina at "this retreat center" owned by the Episcopal Church. King said that the place is near Asheville. King indicated that it would give "us" time to get a little recreation; he mentioned that the place he has in mind has an indoor swimming pool and bowling alley. Continuing, King said that he was thinking of taking 20 or 30 people but not more than 30 people, and that these people would be members of the executive staff, a few of the board members, and four or five other people. King indicated he would like to have Jones and Wachtel come, and he also indicated he would like to have Bayard Rustin attend. King explained that he felt this affair would be very valuable in that they could sit down and really discuss the program. King went on to explain that this would not be an administrative meeting as such, although he said some administrative matters might come up during that period. King said that it will mainly be looking at the program for 1964, and looking over 1963. He said that it will be "a where do we go from here discussion". King indicated that the affair would begin on January 6, 1964, at noon and that it would last until January 8, 1964, at noon. King suggested that it would cost approximately $2,500 for the retreat, and he stated that he feels the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) treasury cannot handle it at this time. Jones agreed with this and said that this is something the Gandhi Society can and should do. King suggested that Jones discuss this with Wachtel in order to get his views. King repeated that he would like to have Jones and Wachtel come, and he remarked that even if they brought their wives it would be a good break for a day or two.

Jones mentioned to King that arguments before the United States Supreme Court in regard to the "libel case" are scheduled for January 6, 1964. He also mentioned that the arguments involve "The New York Times" and the individual defendants who signed "the ad". Jones told King that William P. Rogers, the former Attorney General, and Sam Pierce are doing the oral argument and that Harry and himself were counsel and would be advising them during the argument.

Jones told King that he had been contacted by a representative of a Federal Agency who spoke to him about Arthur Kinoy's relationship with the SCLC, and Jones said that he told him he knew nothing about it. Jones said he mentioned that Kinoy was just an attorney with whom he had worked at one time. Jones said that the questions "assumed an organizational link which does not exist". King commented that "it is very important for us to clear that up because there is no connection other than indirectly through Bill". King reminded Jones that "we made the decision on that - how we would deal with it".

The files of this office reflect that CLARENCE "CHINK" HENRY is President of Local 1419 International Longshoreman's Association, New Orleans, Louisiana,

The files also reflect that MAJOR JOHNS is a field secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and has been active in a voter registration drive at Shreveport, Louisiana.

JOHNS has described himself as an organizer in voter registration drives and that he favors and encourages non-violent demonstrations.

The files of the New Orleans Office reflect that in Birmingham letterhead memorandum dated May 10, 1963 captioned Sit-ins, Birmingham, Alabama, Beginning April 3, 1963, the name HARDY PAYNE, Age 27, 1713-24th Street, Southwest was listed as one of the Negroes arrested on May 6, 1963 by the Birmingham Police Department in connection with demonstrations in that city.

The files of the New Orleans Office show that LAVERT TAYLOR is a field worker for the SCIC and has been engaged in integration activities in the New Orleans area.

The files of the New Orleans Office also reflect in Birmingham letterhead memorandum dated April 16, 1963 captioned Sit-ins, Birmingham, Alabama, April, 1963, on page 9, that one ELIZABETH HAYES, age 20, 842 Center Way, Southwest, was one of the individuals arrested on April 12, 1963 in Birmingham and charged with parading without a permit.

On January 3, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Stanley Levison on that date. They made arrangements to meet at Levison's office, 6 East 39th Street, at 6:00 p.m., on January 3, 1964, for the purpose of discussing the meeting which Jones will have with Martin Luther King on January 5, 1964. Jones mentioned that King is a very sensitive person and was upset by the article in "Time" magazine in which he was named man of the year. Levison said he thought it was a poor article, but he said that it still might have a good effect in that it will make a lot of people angry. (S) U

On January 3, 1964, Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Clarence Jones entering 6 East 39th Street at 3:01 p.m. Jones was observed departing from 6 East 39th Street at 4:58 p.m. with Stanley Levison. Jones and Levison returned to 6 East 39th Street at 5:30 p.m. Jones departed from this address at 5:55 p.m.

~~SECRET~~ [On January 4, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past,] furnished information which indicated that Martin Luther King contacted Clarence Jones on that date. King said that while he is in Washington, D.C., for the Supreme Court case, he will be staying at the Willard Hotel. King stated that it will be all right if his picture is taken on the steps of the Supreme Court Building, and he said that he hopes that the case gets good coverage from the press. Jones indicated that he was certain the press would afford good coverage inasmuch as William Rogers, the former Attorney General, who will argue the case, represents "Newsweek" and the "Washington Post."

Jones said that he had a long talk with "our friend" last night, and he mentioned that "our friend" thinks the material for "The Nation" should not be used until after the Congress convenes. Jones also mentioned that "our friend" thinks that most of the prints should be in draft form by the time King gets to New York.

King indicated that Ralph (Abernathy) and Wyatt (Walker) will be at the New York meeting, and he said that fund raising will be discussed with Billy Rowe. According to King, the meeting will start at 10:00 a.m. on January 8, 1964. King mentioned that he would stay at the New York Hilton Hotel and that he would come directly from Washington, D.C., to New York. King stated he will bring with him a financial report of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), and he indicated that this may help to straighten out the mess in the New York Chapter.

King mentioned that he had received congratulations from Roy (Wilkins) and Whitney (Young) regarding the "Man of the Year Award" by "Time" magazine, but he stated that he had not heard from Jim Farmer. Jones told King he had learned that the derogatory information in the "Time" article came from a book, "A Negro Revolt" by Louis Lomax. Jones stated that Louis Lomax is "a totally dishonest man." King inquired about what "our friend" thought of the article, and Jones replied that "our friend" thinks "we are lucky 'Time' didn't go into the Communist issue or the financial issue."

King told Jones to arrange for a major magazine like "Life," "Look", or the "Saturday Evening Post" to do an "article in depth on Martin Luther King as the President of SCLC and as the Pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church". King also asked Jones to arrange a national net work television program concerning him (King) to be moderated by someone like Howard K. Smith of the American Broadcasting Company. (ABC).

Jones told King to make sure he attends the arguments at the Supreme Court in Washington, on January 6, 1964, since "the presence of Dr. King will have a tremendous effect on the Justices and will have a favorable influence in their decision." King stated he would be there. King said he was good friends with the family of Justice Black and that he was a friend of Justice Goldberg.

Ralph D. Abernathy is the Treasurer of the SCLC.

Wyatt T. Walker is Executive Assistant to the President of the SCLC.

Memorandum from W. C. Sullivan to A. H. Belmont 12/24/63 summarized the results of a conference held at the Seat of Government 12/23/63 between Bureau officials and Supervisors and field representatives designed to explore how best to carry on our investigation of captioned matter to produce the desired results without embarrassment to the Bureau. We completely analyzed avenues of approach aimed at neutralizing Martin Luther King, Jr., as an effective Negro leader. One of the avenues explored was that concerning any facets of the financial operations of King and the organizations through which he operates which investigation might reveal either violations of the law or other potentials for discrediting King or otherwise neutralizing his effectiveness.

Bufiles contain two items of particular significance. A Washington Capital News Service release dated 10/22/63 reveals that King's integration organization had an income of more than $735,000 during the past fiscal year and spent only about half of it. It is stated that in a report of the financial status of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which King is President, King disclosed that the organization had a balance of $351,992.20 left 8/31/63 at the end of the fiscal year from a total income of $735,534.02. Another such news release dated 11/4/63 revealed that Representative George Andrews (D-Ala.) asked the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to investigate the tax status of the SCLC. Andrews is quoted as saying, "Thousands and thousands of dollars are collected and spent each year by so-called civil rights organizations and many people are beginning to suspect they could be a front for a full-grown racket."

It is noted that King's operations revolve principally around the SCLC. However, fund-raising operations on his part are further augmented by the activities of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, which commenced operations in 1962.

OBSERVATIONS:

It is believed that an examination of recent income tax returns of King might well reveal information which could assist the Bureau in its efforts to discredit King or neutralize his effectiveness. This is possibly applicable also if the income tax returns of the SCLC and the Gandhi Society were reviewed. In view of the possibility that the SCLC has already been under some investigation by IRS, a request for the results of such investigation is indicated. We also had information in late 1963 that the Gandhi Society was negotiating with IRS relative to tax exemptions and therefore the results of any IRS investigation of that Society would be worth procuring.

To date we have been most discreet and circumspect in our handling of the King investigation, as well as corollary investigations such as revolving around organizations, because of the position King has not only as a clergyman, but also as a "respected" Negro leader. It is therefore essential that our current requests of the IRS which are herein being recommended be handled in a manner which would provide for optimum security so that neither King nor any other unauthorized individuals may become aware of the Bureau's interest and so that no embarrassment may come to the Bureau. For this reason, the attached memoranda are classified "Secret."

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the Liaison Section obtain two uncertified copies of each of the income tax returns available for the past five years pertaining to King, the SCLC and the Gandhi Society. Attached hereto are three memoranda for the use of the Liaison Section.

ReATAirtel to Bureau, copies to New York and Baltimore, 1-10-64, which enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) concerning the annual top-level meeting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) scheduled to be held at a church retreat area, Black Mountain, North Carolina, 1/20-22/64. An individual mentioned as planning to be at the meeting is a Dr. Reddick and a lead is set out for Baltimore to characterize the individual believed identical to this Reddick.

There have been recent other communications from Atlanta identifying individuals who are to attend the meeting and it should be noted that reLHM identified several other persons in addition to Reddick.

Atlanta is instructed to review its file in captioned matter for the identities of the individuals scheduled to attend the meeting and to be alert to additional information, if received, concerning attendees. As soon as possible after the meeting has been held, Atlanta should submit to the Bureau a summarizing LHM containing the identities of the individuals who attended or were scheduled to attend (if positive information is not known as to whether certain individuals actually attended), including any subversive information available about these persons. Such a summarizing communication will assist in determining what, if any, possible communist influence there may be in the SCLC. The LHM should be submitted under a dual caption pertaining to captioned matter as well as the current investigation of the SCLC.

New York should furnish any information available to Atlanta which will assist in the latter's preparation of the summarizing LHM.

Recent correspondence from receiving offices gives some indication that individuals and/or organizations of interest to the Bureau relative to captioned matter may possibly be taking actions either designed to circumvent tax laws or actually in violation of such laws. As examples, the following specific references are noted:

Atlanta letter to the Bureau, copies to New York, 12/31/63 contains a reference in the top paragraph of page 3 to a contact between Martin Luther King, Jr., and Dr. Benjamin Mays, President, Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, at which time a financial statement of King was discussed. Paragraphs 3 and 4 of page 2 of the referenced letter report on a discussion concerning Wyatt Walker, Executive Assistant of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and one Reverend Simason (phonetic) of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. They discussed a possible speaking engagement for Martin Luther King, Jr., in Milwaukee and Simason asked Walker how a donation could be given to King, tax exempt. Walker said that the plan they always used was to have checks made out to a local church, in this case a Milwaukee church, and that church in turn would endorse the check to "Southern Home Mission work." Walker said that some sums as large as $5,000 have gone directly to King's church in Atlanta to avoid taxes.

New York airtel 1/3/64, copies to Atlanta, enclosed a letterhead memorandum of same date which reported in paragraph 2 of page 1 a contact between Clarence Jones and Harry Wachtel. Wachtel stated that he had received an invitation from Martin Luther King, Jr., to attend the "Black Mountain Retreat." Wachtel mentioned that the invitation stated that the bill would be paid by the Gandhi Society and that if the Gandhi Society pays the bill for the affair, it might lose its tax exemption. Wachtel therefore felt that this statement should be deleted from the invitations.

The Bureau believes that the references developed to date to any possible evasion or violation of tax laws are too indefinite to enable the Bureau to make any logical dissemination to the Internal Revenue Service or any other tax authorities at this time. Another factor for consideration, but not necessarily a deterring one, is the most sensitive and discreet nature of our current investigation of King and the groups with which he is associated.

Receiving offices should remain particularly alert to all references developed to any possible tax evasion or violation of tax laws and furnish the Bureau promptly such information as developed. Such information may be forthcoming relative not only to King, but to the organizations with which he is associated. No open investigation should be conducted to develop this type of information. However, as information of this nature is developed in connection with captioned matter it should be promptly furnished the Bureau.

Since recent establishment by your office of certain sensitive-type coverage pertaining to captioned matter your office has submitted a series of letters under above caption flagged to the personal attention of Assistant Director William C. Sullivan, which communications have reported upon the results of such coverage. These letters have contained a caution in an opening paragraph that the communication is not to be disseminated outside the Bureau and that "When pertinent to a report, it should be placed on Cover Pages only." These letters have not forwarded any letterhead memoranda (LHM) which would enable the Bureau to make dissemination when same might be indicated.

The Bureau has made a close analysis of the information being submitted by your office in the afore-mentioned communications and is now offering the following guidance and suggestions for future handling of the information emanating from the sources referred to above.

(1) Unless some specific reason exists pertaining to a specific matter involved, it will not be necessary for your office to flag these communications to the personal attention of Assistant Director Sullivan. He is regularly being apprised through Seat of Government channels of the more important aspects relating to captioned case.

(2) The review of communications submitted by your office to date appears to indicate that the greater bulk of information obtained from these sources is being furnished to the Bureau. This includes information which is voluminous and which, if closely analyzed at the field office level, might well indicate that the raw material could be distilled down so that the Bureau will be furnished only the more pertinent information. Of course, there may be situations where information would be of interest to another office, in which event it should be furnished to such other office; but, this would not necessarily require advising the Bureau. Each item must be considered on its own merits. Doubtful situations should, of course, be resolved in favor of including advice to the Bureau.

(3) The material being furnished the Bureau has been handled in most instances by letter. It is believed that some of the information being obtained would indicate that an airtel would be the more appropriate type of communication to use. Also, there may be situations wherein a teletype should be used. You should therefore give thorough consideration to utilizing a more expeditious means of communication than a letter in those instances where time is a vital element.

(4) Your office has not been submitting LHM's with the letters discussed herein. Each item of information obtained from these sources should be closely examined with a view to the necessity for possible dissemination at the Seat of Government and when same is indicated, the pertinent information should be included in an LHM. It is suggested that information obtained from these sources be classified "Secret." As a guide to assist you, it is suggested that your office review a number of the airtels and LHM's which the New York Office has been submitting to the Bureau (in many instances your office also receives copies) which concern the same subject matter and are from similar type sources. In this regard, you should discontinue using the caveat "When pertinent to a report, it should be placed on Cover Pages only." As you are aware, the Bureau is responsible for appropriate dissemination of matters in the security field and, particularly in captioned matter, considerable dissemination is being made on a daily basis to the Department. Some of the dissemination includes the Attorney General and even the White House. Therefore, information obtained from these sources should be considered

Letter to Atlanta
RE: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
NEGRO QUESTION

for inclusion in LHM's and investigative reports when appropriate. Should a question arise as to some specific data, an appropriate inquiry of the Bureau should serve to resolve whether or not the particular item in question may be included in communications prepared for possible dissemination.

(5) It is believed that the submissions from your office should be on a daily or near daily basis and that you avoid submitting communications covering information obtained from these sources over a period of several days. Following such procedure will prompt timeliness to not only your advice to the Bureau, but to the subsequent dissemination by the Bureau to other agencies. As an example in this regard, your attention is invited to your letter 12/31/63 which contains considerable information obtained on 12/17/63 and 12/18/63 and one item of information obtained on 12/19/63. It would have been more desirable to have submitted one or more communications concerning the 12/17/63 information, one or more concerning the 12/18/63 data and one concerning the 12/19/63 information. In this respect, also note that it would be far more desirable to segregate the information by subject matter as received. In other words, if on a particular date your sources report information pertaining to several different matters, it would facilitate reporting and administrative aspects, as well as timeliness, if the items were handled by separate communications. A close review of the 12/31/63 letter in question will indicate what specifically is intended by this suggestion.

(6) As an example of the necessity for including information in an LHM which merits dissemination, your attention is invited to another letter from your office dated 12/31/63 which contains information commencing at the bottom of page 3 and on all of page 4 concerning a discussion involving an Obstruction of Justice case. It is indicated that Wyatt Walker had told Slater King that Martin Luther King, Jr., had not followed through on Bobby Kennedy. Walker told Slater King that Martin wanted to wait until things calmed down after the assassination of the President but if the Government does not withdraw from the case they plan to get a delegation together to go to the Department of Justice and the White House. Walker indicated this was the next step in their program. He said they will circulate petitions and at the same time send the pressure group to Washington and this should be sometime no later than 2/10/64. The Bureau intends to disseminate such information to the Department, the White House and other appropriate agencies.

In view of the above, you are instructed to furnish by return airtel an LHM classified "Secret" which may be used for dissemination purposes. It should be devoted exclusively to the matter referred to above.

(7) As indicated above, it is suggested that a review of copies of New York communications in this matter which your office has received should serve as a guide and should also serve as additional guidance to your office in handling the matters discussed above. Insure that all personnel engaged in captioned case are given the benefit of instant communication.

'Will Never Turn Back, Say Freedom Marchers

"A new spirit is abroad in the land. We shall never turn back."

These were the sentiments of the Rev. James Breeden and the leaders of the recent Freedom March in Williamston, N.C., who participated in last night's Freedom Rally at St. Paul's Cathedral.

"You've recently come from the firing line," the Rev. Breeden told the Williamston Unit of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, whose freedom songs filled the sanctuary. "Well, we're on the firing line too," he said.

The Williamston Unit has come to New England at the invitation of the Massachusetts Unit, whose president, the Rev. Virgil A. Wood, is leading each of the rallies scheduled in the New England area.

Since Nov. 5, about 40 members of the Massachusetts Unit have participated in similar rallies in Williamston. They were the first white people to attend any of the rallies and demonstra-

ReATlet to the Bureau, copies to Charlotte and New York, 12/31/63 which revealed plans for a retreat which Martin Luther King, Jr., and his associates in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference planned to have on property owned by the Episcopal Church near Asheville, North Carolina. The original plan was for this retreat to take place 1/6-8/64 and also to be invited were some people in the current Negro movement possibly not directly a part of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

ReCEairtel to the Bureau, copies to Atlanta and New York, 1/7/64 which disclosed the results of a discreet inquiry made which determined that the site of the retreat would likely be the In-The-Oaks Episcopal Center, Black Mountain, North Carolina. Charlotte requested advice as to what coverage of the retreat was desired and that no open investigation would be conducted unless requested by Atlanta, New York, or the Bureau.

For the information of Charlotte, subsequent information developed revealed that the retreat is now scheduled to take place the latter part of January, 1964.

ReCilet to Director 12/11/63 requesting review of indices re FRED L. SHUTTLESWORTH, Cincinnati, Ohio, Secretary.

WFO indices and file references reviewed and were found to contain no additional subversive derogatory info re SHUTTLESWORTH.

For info, WFO file 157-253, entitled "FRED L. SHUTTLESWORTH vs. City of Birmingham, Racial Matters, (OO:WFO)" reveals:

Examination of Docket in U.S. Supreme Court in June, 1963, showed there was filed on 5/29/63 a Petition for Writ of Certiorari in case entitled FRED L. SHUTTLESWORTH vs. the City of Birmingham, Case No. 1140 Appellate. JACK GREENBERG was one of the attorneys for the petitioner.

The petition sets forth that SHUTTLESWORTH was arrested 5/17/61 at Greyhound Bus Station in Birmingham, Alabama, and charged with violation of Section 856, General City Code of Birmingham (preventing a police officer in the discharge of his legal duty).

On 12/5/61, SHUTTLESWORTH was tried and convicted of the charge in the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Alabama, and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs. On failure to pay the fine he was sentenced to 52 days of hard labor. He was sentenced to an additional term of 180 days of hard labor and 16 days for costs.

Judgment of conviction was affirmed by the Alabama Court of Appeals on 10/23/62 and thereafter Petition for Writ of Certiorari filed in the Supreme Court of Alabama was stricken on 12/20/62 and application for rehearing was overruled on 2/28/63.

Re Atlanta letter to Bureau 10/15/63; Miami letter to Bureau 12/10/63 and Bureau letter 10/17/63.

Miami indices contained numerous references to Reverend EDWARD T. GRAHAM, many in files of a security nature, however it was determined that the organizations and groups he was active in, or a member of, were not capable of being documented. These groups dealt primarily with GRAHAM's efforts concerning integration and better working conditions for the Negro.

Referenced Miami letter contained an enclosure setting forth the names of these organizations, over 30 in number, the vast majority not capable of documentation, and they will not be set out again in this letter. 21a

The following documentation is submitted although it should be noted that upon reviewing the original source files, a positive identification with Reverend GRAHAM could not be made in many instances.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~MISCELLANEOUS

On December 1, 1953, Rev. EDWARD GRAHAM, Mt. Zion Baptist Church, telephonically contacted Special Agent in Charge EDWARD J. POWERS of the Miami Office, to offer his complete cooperation to this office. He advised he understood some vicious rumors were being circulated that he is under investigation by the FBI for being a pro-Communist. He advised that nothing could be further from the truth and he could not understand how this rumor started. He indicated he would like to come to the Miami Office and talk to the Special Agent in Charge, and would call later for an appointment. There is no indication in his file or office references that GRAHAM ever came to the Miami Office in this regard.

The December 21, 1960 issue of the MIAMI HERALD contains an article reflecting that the Florida Supreme Court, Tuesday, reversed the conviction of Rev. EDWARD T. GRAHAM, who had been sentenced to jail for refusing to tell the Florida Legislative Investigating Committee whether he belonged to the NAACP. The court said that compelling GRAHAM to testify to his NAACP membership would violate his "right of legitimate associational privacy." Also there was no showing that GRAHAM's testimony was needed "to smoke out subversives," the court said.

The MIAMI HERALD of April 7, 1957 carried an article headed "Former NAACP Chief" - "Pastor is jailed on morals charge." The article stated that the Rev. EDWARD T. GRAHAM, Pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church and past President of the local NAACP, was booked into County jail on a charge of drunkenness and indecent exposure in the company of another man's wife. The article continued that GRAHAM had been a leading civic figure in the Negro community life since coming here in 1943 as a U.S.O. Executive. He served as Executive Secretary of the Negro Service Council until called to the pastorate at Mt. Zion in 1948. He resides at 356 N.W. 9th Street.

A source in Miami, Florida, advised on May 23, 1963, that there are presently three Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) in the Miami area with a total membership of 120.

This source advised that the Town Club and Miami Beach Club were formed sometime prior to 1953, exact dates unknown.

The third and newest club, the English Speaking Club, which meets at Miami Beach, was formed on September 20, 1960.

This source also stated that the three clubs are presently affiliated with the national organization of the ELF.

"The Jewish Fraternalist" dated October, 1947, self-identified as the official publication of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO) of the International Workers Order (IWO), on page 6, contained an article which disclosed that the Emma Lazarus Division (ELD) of the JPFO was to hold its first national convention in New York City on November 15 and 16, 1947, after having been first established at a National Women's Conference called three years previously by the JPFO.

The "Morning Freiheit" on January 25, 1951, contained a report of the National Convention of the ELD of the JPFO which took place in New York City on January 20 and 21, 1951. At this convention it was noted that the ELD changed its name to Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) and adopted a new constitution.

On April 25, 1963, a source advised that the ELF is one of several mass organizations comprising the Jewish cultural progressive movement. June Gordon, ELF Executive Director, who is a member of the New York State Communist Party (CP) Board and Committee, is the leading force in the organization, whose leadership is largely made up of communists.

The source stated that the ELF claims to be for peace and interested in protecting the rights of the foreign born. It is against the Ben Gurion Government of Israel, bomb testing, anti-Semitism, Negro discrimination, and the rearmament of West Germany.

The source related that the ELF renders support to and receives support from the "Morning Freiheit" and other Jewish progressive organizations.

The source also stated that the ELF is recognized by the CP, USA, as an important progressive national organization of women.

The address of the national office of the ELF is 160 Fifth Avenue, Room 911, New York City.

C., contains the following concerning the "Morning Freiheit":

- "1. A 'Communist Yiddish daily' (Attorney General Francis Biddle,
Congressional Record, September 24, 1942, p. 7686).
- "2. 'The Freiheit has been one of the rankest organs of Communist propaganda in this country for almost a quarter of a century.'

Activities House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee,

APPENDIXJEWISH CULTURAL CENTER (JCC)~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The records of the Circuit Court, Dade County, Miami, Florida, reflect that articles of corporation were filed by the Jewish Cultural Center (JCC) and on July 13, 1949, a charter was granted it. The JCC was established as a corporation "not for profit." The general nature of the object of the JCC is to preserve and extend Jewish culture, including, without limitations, educational, theatrical, musical, scientific and literary activities.

On July 27, 1953, a source advised it is his opinion that the JCC is a local "progressive" organization not directly connected with the Communist Party, USA (CP); that the JCC was started by some local members of the CP but not, in his opinion, at the orders of the CP; and that he believes the JCC was formed in order to provide a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups."

The source advised on January 5, 1955, that the JCC continued to act as a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups" in the Miami area, and to rent space to any group meeting that qualification. He further advised the JCC in itself is not a Communist front organization but does permit such organizations to hold meetings at the Center.

On May 23, 1963, another source advised that the JCC is dominated by Communist Party sympathizers, and it continues to permit Communist front organizations to hold meetings in the Center.

On January 4, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Martin Luther King contacted Clarence Jones on that date. During the course of their discussion, King mentioned that Ralph (Abernathy) and Wyatt (Walker) will be at the New York meeting, and he said that fund raising will be discussed with Billy Rowe. According to King, the meeting will start at 10:00 AM on January 8, 1964. King also mentioned that he would be at the New York Hilton Hotel. King stated he would bring with him a financial report of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), and he indicated that this might help to straighten out the mess in the New York Chapter.

On January 9, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Clarence Jones contacted Stanley Levison on that date. Jones mentioned that he will be at the SCLC office on January 13, 1964 to talk to Ruth Bailey, who is employed in that office. Jones remarked that "they won't get any money until they talk".

Negro Question
Communist Influence in Racial Matters

Levison said that he was amazed by the lack of interest shown in this problem yesterday. Levison told Jones to handle this matter with Ruth Bailey diplomatically. Levison stated that "the problem with these people was that they made policy without considering the parent organization". Levison related that the New York Office of the SCLC "just got out of control and it will have to be set straight right now".

Levison told Jones that they had resolved the problem of Al Duckett yesterday while he (Jones) was out of the room. Levison said they feel the fact that Duckett can contact such people as Jack Robinson and Rockefeller outweighs his shortcomings. Jones said that any problems Bayard (Rustin) can cause Martin Luther King are mild compared to those which Duckett can cause King. Levison remarked that Jones should have raised these objections yesterday.

Levison stated that Ed Clayton is doing a tremendous job with the "SCLC Newsletter" even though he is a drunk. Levison stated "if those jerks can tolerate Wyatt (Walker) why can't they take care of this drunk". He mentioned that Wyatt has "real problems". Levison stated that Billy Rowe has some good ideas but talks about things he is not experienced in and, therefore, did not make the best impression yesterday. Jones remarked, "that jerk Wyatt thinks he can run all the public relations aspects of this show".

Jones asked Levison what King thought about being "man of the year". Levison said that King related he (King) has 185 plaques at his home and "what's one more".

Re Atlanta letter to Bureau, 1/6/64.

The Rev. OLIVER W. GIBSON is President of Wesley Methodist Church, Beloit, Wisconsin, resides 1014 Copeland Avenue, Beloit, Wisconsin, telephone EMerson 2-2938 (362-2930).

Milwaukee Indices contain the following background information concerning GIBSON:

Rev. OLIVER W. GIBSON formerly resided at 1406 South Valmar, Little Rock, Arkansas and was Pastor of the White Memorial Methodist Church, a negro church. His wife is MARJORIE, and she is believed to have taught in a negro school in Little Rock. In October, 1956, GIBSON furnished the Little Rock Office information concerning LOUIS BURNHAM, a reporter of the National Guardian, New York, New York, and BURNHAM's activities while in Little Rock. GIBSON knew BURNHAM and JAMES JACKSON, formerly indicted top communists, while BURNHAM and JACKSON were working with the Southern Negro Youth Congress in about 1948 in Alabama. At that time, GIBSON and his family were in a printing business in Birmingham and did some work for BURNHAM and JACKSON until GIBSONs determined they might have some subversive connections. At that time, Birmingham had no record for GIBSON and the Little Rock Office had no security information regarding GIBSON. In a Little Rock case involving the bombing of a residence of one of the original nine negroes to enter Little Rock Central High School, GIBSON furnished information, the reliability of which was very questionable, and acted as spiritual advisor for one of the negro subjects. While in Little Rock, Arkansas, GIBSON associated with white and negro groups advocating integration.

The April 15, 1961 issue of the Beloit Daily News, a daily newspaper published at Beloit, Wisconsin, contained a letter to the editor from GIBSON, wherein he lists himself as president of the Beloit branch of the NAACP. In this letter, he points out that Beloit, Wisconsin has possibilities of being a model city from the standpoint of size and other qualities except they have prejudice and discrimination; and then he asked questions as to why negroes are not employed by the police department, fire department, certain jobs in the telephone company, public utilities, Beloit Iron Works, faculty of the high school, sales and clerical capacity in department stores and at the Fairbanks-Morse Company in Beloit, Wisconsin.

The May 4, 1961 issue of the Rockford Morning Star, a daily newspaper published at Rockford, Illinois, contained an article under the headline, "Freedom Week Rivalry Ended," and stated that representatives of the Beloit Freedom Week Committee and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People stated principles of their separate rallies scheduled for May 6, 1961. Although differing in their interpretation of freedom, both groups emphasized that the two observances would not interfere with each other. This was a joint statement by Rev. O. U. GIBSON, president of the NAACP, and BY JAYSON, Chairman of the Freedom Week Committee.

The May 8, 1961 issue of the Beloit Daily News contained an article describing a rally of Beloit negroes held May 6, 1961, wherein the main speaker was the Rev. O. W. GIBSON, President of the Beloit NAACP and pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church. The article stated that nearly 300 Beloit negroes, joined by about 45 white persons, participated in a mass freedom rally May 6, 1961 at Beloit, Wisconsin.

The June 14, 1961 issue of the Wisconsin State Journal, a daily newspaper published at Madison, Wisconsin contained an article describing a civil rights rally of about 200 persons held on the steps of the Wisconsin State Capitol, Madison, Wisconsin, Tuesday, June 13, 1961. The group was addressed by Wisconsin Governor GAYLORD NELSON and Rev. OLIVER W. GIBSON of Beloit, who stated, "We want legislative action." GIBSON was described as one who participated in the anti-segregation struggle in Little Rock, Arkansas, as a minister of a congregation there for four years and noted discrimination here and contrasted the difference between government leaders in Wisconsin and the South, stating, "The only difference I see here in Wisconsin is that this time the governor is on our side."

On May 8, 1961, GEORGE GRIFFIN, Chief of Police, Beloit Police Department, advised that the negro rally held on May 6, 1961 in Beloit had been very orderly. There was no indication of any violence and no urging of violence on the part of GIBSON; GRIFFIN stated that the subject has become the spokesman for most of the negro groups in Beloit, Wisconsin and apparently has taken a continual interest in attempting to obtain employment for negroes, particularly in the municipality of Beloit, Wisconsin.

On January 4, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Martin Luther King contacted Clarence Jones on that date. During the course of their discussion, King indicated that Ralph (Abernathy) and Wyatt (Walker) will be at the New York meeting, and he said that fund raising will be discussed with Billy Rowe. According to King, the meeting will start at 10:00 AM on January 8, 1964. King also mentioned that he would stay at the New York Hilton Hotel. King stated that he would bring with him a financial report of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), and he indicated that this may help to straighten out the mess in the New York Chapter.

On January 9, 1964, the same confidential source furnished information that Clarence Jones mentioned "they had discussed the SCLC yesterday. Jones said that it had been decided that there would be a complete revamping of the New York Office of the SCLC. He also mentioned that it had been decided that the New York Office of the SCLC would be closed at its present location and moved to some
